HI THERE!

I'm Erin ~ Story teller, travel enthusiast, and hopeless romantic ~ Photography is my passion and my purpose! My style is very candid, true to the moment, and adventurous. I'm not afraid of getting a little dirty: Climbing trees, wading in a river, army crawling through the field, you name it, I've done it, and I have the shots to show for it! Whatever it takes to get that EPIC shot!

Choosing a photographer can be a big decision. Do your personalities click? Do you like the style? Is the photographer offering everything you need and want? This booklet will give you a little more insight on Gambles Photography and what I offer. Hopefully we're a perfect match!

So go ahead, take a peek! If you like what you see, give me a call! I would be honored for the opportunity to capture the joy that is your wedding day!

Oh, and cheers to your engagement!

With love,

Erin Gamble Northrip

“ We cannot thank Erin enough for capturing every moment of our wedding day! Not only did she endure a storm to get the perfect first look but ended the day with an amazing sunset and the perfect send off. She even captured us with a rainbow during dinner! When we thought the weather would ruin our wedding day, Erin made the absolute best of it! We have perfect memories to look back on because of her, and I can't wait to use Erin for every shoot needed from now on. ”

MY PHILOSOPHY

When it comes to weddings, you want to remember more than just the classic portraits. It's all about raw emotion throughout the day: the tearful father of the bride as he walks her down the aisle, the nervousness of the groom right before the first look, and the cake smash that has the whole reception laughing. THESE are the moments we specialize in!

Weddings are all about celebrating the adventure you are about to start with your soon-to-be husband or wife and we believe your wedding photos should reflect exactly that! You can bet that we won't leave your wedding without doing something EPIC that truly showcases your love for one another - and we're known for always being up to the challenge. ;)

DESTINATION WEDDINGS

Exploring the winding roads of the Italian countryside, the whitewashed Santorini streets, or the vibrant riads of Morocco can bring an extra element of magic to your wedding experience! Wherever you decide to tie the knot (in or out of the country), you can bet we'll be right by your side. What most people don't realize is that hiring a photographer locally to travel WITH you to your destination can often make more sense (and be more budget-friendly) than hiring someone on location. Not to mention, we'll get to capture every special moment along the way, not just on the big day! Ask for a custom quote for your destination wedding!

I was hesitant to book a photographer. With plans for a destination wedding, I was convinced it would be more practical and cost effective to book someone at our destination. After countless hours of research and trying to get to know a photographer only through email, I decided to go with my gut and book Erin. I met her in person at a bridal expo and all the girls in my bridal party instantly had a good feeling.

Looking back at our wedding planning journey, my husband and I agree, this was one of the best decisions we made. Yes, there were additional travel expenses, but these were nothing compared to the added benefits. Erin was onboard, ready to help with any wedding need (yes, much more than just photography) all along the way. With other photographers we would have been limited to a few hours on our wedding day... With Erin on our journey, we were able to take pictures in multiple breathtaking locations over multiple days. She was constantly going to the extreme to get that AMAZING shot whether that meant hiking a cliff, laying on the ground, jumping a fence, or climbing on someone's shoulders.

As if that wasn't enough, she was constantly stepping up to help with everything from flowers to bridesmaid's hair and anything else that came up. She was super flexible and accommodating. She was 100% there for us throughout our destination wedding journey and the result is truly EPIC wedding pictures that we are constantly hearing family, friends, and even strangers talk about.
